3-Circle the correct alternative: (3marks)

One fine morning, a man was fishing in a river. The sun was shining and the man (sat – was sitting – sit) on the river bank. (Fishing – Fish – Fisher) was his favourite pastime. Everything was very quiet and peaceful. The man was waiting patiently, when suddenly he stood up (quickly – slowly – sadly) and began to take in the line. There (was – were – are) a big fish but it fell back into river. At first, the man didn't know what happened. Then he (looked – look – was looking) carefully at his fishing line. It was empty. The poor man was so (disappointed – happy – satisfied) that he packed away all his things and went home.
